

UF Health North Hospital

Caring for those who serve.

Opening May 2017

UF Health North accepts TRICARE coverage so that servicemen, servicewomen and their families have another choice for high-quality, compassionate health care. When the hospital opens this spring, expectant mothers with TRICARE can give birth in 12 spacious labor and delivery suites. UF Health Women's Specialists – North provides obstetric and gynecological care on the same campus.

Currently, the UF Health North campus has a medical office building which houses more than 20 outpatient services, including everything from pediatrics and orthopaedics to an adult and pediatric full-service emergency room, open 24/7. Located just off I-95 near the Jacksonville International Airport, these options are close to home in the heart of North Jacksonville.
